Federal employees are fortunate to continue to have coverage under the Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) Program when they retire, so why think about Medicare or the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage?

Most plans offered through FEHB are plans that include some level of cost sharing. Cost sharing means you may pay some portion of the costs — deductibles, coinsurance and copays — when you visit health care providers. And, we all know this can add up. Enrolling in Medicare Parts A and B and the NALC High Option Plan may save you money.

You have the following options available:

- Continue to stay in the NALC Health Benefit Plan High Option without electing Medicare
- Continue to stay in the NALC Health Benefit Plan High Option and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B, or
- Remain a member of the NALC Health Benefit Plan High Option, enroll in or remain enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B, and opt in to the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage

You must be a member of the NALC Health Benefit Plan High Option to opt in to the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage

As with all plan options offered by the NALC Health Benefit Plan, if you are a non-Postal employee, annuitant, survivor annuitant, or a former spouse eligible for coverage under the Spouse Equity Law or eligible for Temporary Continuation of Coverage (TCC), you become an associate member of National Association of Letter Carriers (the union) when you enroll in the NALC Health Benefit Plan. Associate members will be billed by the National Association of Letter Carriers for the $36 annual membership fee.

How can you save money on health care costs by enrolling in Medicare and the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage?

If you enroll in Medicare Parts A and B, your FEHB plan may lower your out-of-pocket costs by waiving certain deductibles or coinsurance. If you are enrolled in the NALC Health Benefit Plan High Option and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B, you are also eligible to opt in to the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage, which will provide you with a Part B premium reduction of $900 per person, per year, as well as other exciting benefits, while continuing to enjoy the high level of service available through the NALC Health Benefit Plan.

What's Medicare?

At first glance, Medicare may seem like a lot to figure out, especially since you keep your FEHB coverage after you retire. Medicare is a federal health insurance program for people age 65 and older, as well as some people under age 65 with disabilities, and people with end-stage renal disease (kidney failure).

Get a complete Medicare Advantage plan without having to suspend your FEHB coverage and while remaining an NALC Health Benefit Plan member

With the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage, your coinsurance and deductibles will continue to be $0 for most medical expenses (as they are if you are in the NALC Health Benefit Plan High Option with Medicare Parts A and B). However, once you opt in to the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage, it's possible to decrease your monthly Medicare Part B premiums. Also, opting in to the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage offers more thorough coverage and programs to help you reach your health goals, as described in this brochure.

Highlights of the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage

- No additional premium cost (you pay the same NALC Health Benefit Plan High Option premium)
- $900 per year ($75 monthly) Medicare Part B premium reduction for eligible members
- $0 deductible and coinsurance for medical care (you have this with your existing coverage if you are enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B)
- Unlimited physical, occupational and speech therapy visits
- Prescription drug coverage as low as $0 (through Medicare Part D)
- Dental coverage
- Vision coverage
- Continued access to your doctors (see any provider, whether in the network or not). You pay the same out-of-pocket cost for both covered in-network and out-of-network medical benefits. The provider must be eligible to receive payment under Medicare and be willing to bill and accept payment from Aetna. Call the Aetna Retiree Solutions service center at 866-241-0262 (TTY: 711) for assistance.
- Additional programs, like the SilverSneakers® fitness program, Healthy Home Visits, a nonemergency transportation program and home-delivered meals after discharge from an inpatient hospital stay, all at no additional cost.

Visit Medicare.gov to learn more, or call 800-MEDICARE (800-633-4227), 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Those who are deaf and hard-of-hearing can call TTY: 711.

You can also request a copy of the “Medicare & You” brochure when you call. Or, just download it from the Medicare website Medicare.gov

What is Medicare? — The Four Parts

Medicare Part A = Hospital insurance

Covers most inpatient medical expenses, like hospital stays and home health care. Generally, no premium is required to enroll in and be covered by Medicare Part A.

Medicare Part B = Medical insurance

Covers doctor visits, durable medical equipment, outpatient procedures and lab services. Generally, Medicare Part B enrollees pay a monthly Part B premium and a deductible before Medicare covers services.

Original Medicare = Part A + Part B

Together, both parts provide coverage in and out of the hospital.

Medicare Part C = Medicare Advantage

Medicare Advantage plans are offered by private insurance companies and approved by Medicare. They may offer more benefits at a lower cost than Medicare Parts A and B. You must sign up for Parts A and B before enrolling in a Medicare Advantage plan (Medicare Part C).

Medicare Part D = Prescription Drug coverage

It's offered by private insurance companies to help pay prescription drug costs. It's included in some Medicare Advantage plans or can be added to Medicare Parts A and B coverage.

The NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage combines Medicare Part C (Medicare Advantage) and Medicare Part D (prescription drug coverage) all in one plan.

Benefits-at-a-glance for NALC High Option Plan Annuitants with Medicare — pharmacy coverage

Your pharmacy benefits are known as Part D. The below information explains these benefits and compares coverage available under the NALC Health Benefit Plan High Option (for annuitants also enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B) and the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage.

Part D medications: Your Part D medications will fall into one of the following tiers on our prescription drug list, also known as the formulary. Your cost share will depend on the tier placement and if you go to a preferred or standard pharmacy. It's always best to check the formulary each time you need to fill a prescription, so you'll know your share of the cost. The formulary guide will also show if any prior authorization is required to obtain medications.

Non-Part D Supplemental Benefit: Your plan includes additional coverage for some prescription drugs not normally covered in a Medicare prescription drug plan.

Additional reduced-cost drugs: Under the Essential Health Supplemental Benefit, you have a $0 cost share for covered drugs. This benefit mirrors the coverage of certain preventive drugs that are part of the Affordable Care Act. The Reduced Cost Supplemental Benefit provides an additional list of other reduced-cost drugs. A valid prescription is required for all drugs.

What do I need to know about Medicare enrollment?

There are several specific time periods during which you can enroll in Medicare Parts A and B. The first two (initial enrollment and special enrollment periods) are without penalty. The third (general enrollment period) is considered late enrollment, which could increase your costs significantly.

Initial Enrollment Period (IEP)

For most people, the IEP lasts for 7 months, starting three months before you turn age 65 and ending three months after the month you turn age 65. You can apply online at SocialSecurity.gov or enroll at your local Social Security office.

Special Enrollment Period (SEP)

After your IEP ends, you may still sign up for Medicare if you meet the criteria for SEP.

If you are still working and you're covered under a group health plan (usually through your employer), you have an 8-month SEP to sign up. This SEP begins with whichever comes first:

- The month after your employment ends
- The month after the group health plan insurance ends

Usually, you don't pay a late enrollment penalty if you sign up during a SEP.

General Enrollment Period (GEP)

Between January 1 and March 31 each year, Medicare offers a GEP. You can sign up during the GEP any year if both are true:

- You didn't sign up when you were first eligible (during your IEP), and
- You aren't eligible for a SEP

Medicare Part B late enrollment penalty

If you don't sign up for Medicare Part B when you're first eligible, your monthly premium may go up 10% for each 12-month period you were eligible, but didn't sign up. In most cases, you'll have to pay this penalty for as long as you have Medicare Part B. And, the penalty increases the longer you go without Part B coverage.

How do I enroll in Medicare Parts A and B?

Contact your local Social Security office:

- Apply online at SSA.gov (if you qualify)
- Call 800-772-1213 (TTY: 800-325-0778)

About IRMAA

If your income is above a certain limit, you may be required to pay an Income Related Monthly Adjustment Amount, or IRMAA, to the government. This is in addition to the standard Medicare Part B and Part D premium amount. IRMAA could be assessed to the standard Medicare Part B premium and also added when enrolling in a Medicare Part D plan.

Since Aetna® is not responsible for IRMAA, please see the chart provided by Medicare, which lists additional costs by income at Medicare.gov/Basics/Costs/Medicare-costs

If you must pay an additional amount, Social Security, not the NALC High Option Plan — Aetna Medicare Advantage, will send you a letter telling you what that additional amount will be and how to pay it. The additional amount will be withheld from your Social Security, Railroad Retirement Board or Office of Personnel Management benefit check, no matter how you pay your plan premium.
